

GOVERNOR IN PETERSBURG

Strong Plea for Upholding the Law as Strength of a Nation.

WAS A JOLLY MARRIAGE

The Petersburg Grays Receive Three and a Half Apiece for Guarding Henry Williams.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., March 21.—Mr. Landon Jolly and Mrs. Josephine Jolly, both of Dinwiddie county, arrived at the Shirley Hotel yesterday morning, and were married by the Rev. S. O. Bunting, the marriage being witnessed by several guests of the hotel. The bride is the widow of the late Mr. Jolly, who was murdered several years ago by a negro, and she has six children.

GOVERNOR SPEAKS.
The large auditorium of the Petersburg Academy of Music was crowded yesterday afternoon when Governor A. J. Montagu addressed the men of the city on the influence of Christianity upon the nations of the world. His Excellency held the undivided attention of his auditors, and handled the subject in a masterly manner.

Beginning with the Egyptian government and coming down to the government of succeeding times, he traced the advancement of art, literature and science, and pointed out that the reach these nations, even with the highest development of the finer arts, had failed to attain the greatest degree of excellence was because of the lack of Christian influence.

Governor Montagu pointed out instances wherein there had been a happy blending of Christian virtues, and showed that these people had achieved success in its fullest significance.

OBSERVE THE LAWS.
He pleaded for a strict observance of the laws of the land, attributing to the passion of lawlessness the downfall of otherwise mighty nations. Where laws are unjust, recourse can be had to repeal; but it is of primary importance to the advancement of a people that there be strict obedience to the powers that be.

He spoke in highest commendation of the Young Men's Christian Association as affording the means of a united fight for Christianity by members of every evangelical creed.

MILITARY PAID.
For their part in protecting the negro Williams, on the occasion of his trip from Richmond to Roanoke, the Petersburg Grays military company to-day received check from the State government for $14.85, being $2.50 per member. Miss Mamie G. Bass and Mr. James Collins will be married at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Petersburg, April 5th at 7 o'clock P. M.

GET DEEP WATER SHORE.

Fredericksburg Gentlemen Win Before State Board of Fisheries.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 21.—The application of Dr. F. W. Lewis, Dr. J. M. Irving and Mr. Channing Williams, of Lancaster county, for two hundred and fifty acres of deep water shore, off Gwynn's Island, in Mathews county, has been granted by the State Board of Fisheries. The application was vigorously fought by the State Board of Fisheries, but the board dissented.

The Bywaters Hunting Club of Culpeper county has caught this season seventeen foxes, and many of the chases were of the most exciting nature. Mr. W. F. Hale, of Prince William county, has sold to a New York party four fine horses for the handsome sum of $2,100.

Four horses of the stable of President Roosevelt have been shipped from Washington to the farm of Mr. S. Russell Smith, in Culpeper county, where they will recuperate and be put in good condition for the summer.

Mr. C. C. Tallaferra, Jr., of Orange county, won the middle weight championship prize for wrestling in the freshmen class at Princeton University, Princeton, N. J., this session.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Fannie Jones, daughter of Mrs. Julia Jones, of King George county, to Mr. Cully Norris, formerly of Washington, but now a resident of King George.

Fire on Back River.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., March 21.—The dwelling of William Wood, on Back River, in Elizabeth City county, was destroyed by fire to-day. The fire started about 10 o'clock, while Mr. Wood was away from home. His wife and daughter were in the house, but made their escape without difficulty. None of the furniture was saved. The loss was two thousand dollars; no insurance.

Excitement in Clifton Forge

Popular Young Fireman Perhaps Fatally Shot by Negro Brakeman.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CLIFTON FORGE, VA., March 21.—John A. Huff, a popular Chesapeake and Ohio fireman, was shot by a negro brakeman named Robert Bowles at 2:30 o'clock this morning. Huff was called to fire an engine down the James River Division, and was waiting for the engineer, who was waiting for the negro to clear the track. Huff refused, and alighted from the engine, whereupon the negro whipped out a thirty-eight caliber revolver and shot at him five times, one shot taking effect in Huff's left breast, near the heart, and another in the abdomen.

Huff fell toward the first shot, and the negro kept shooting until he emptied the revolver. The negro fled toward the Chesapeake and Ohio shops, and has not been seen since. Hundreds of men, armed with Winchester and revolvers, have been scouring the mountains, but at this hour the fugitive has eluded all efforts at capture.

Huff cannot recover. He is a native of Rockledge county and was a student at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg several years ago. If the negro is captured he will doubtless be hanged. Never in the history of the town has there been such an excitement.

DATE FOR GRAND CAMP.

Lynchburg Committee Put It With the Horse Show.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., March 21.—The congregation of the Methodist Protestant Church has instructed its delegate to ask for the return of their pastor, Rev. C. C. Bacchus, who has served four years here. The convention is to be held in Baltimore early in April. Mr. A. N. Pierce is the delegate from Lynchburg and Mr. E. W. Roby alternate.

The committee, recently appointed by the Garfield-Roosevelt Camp, Confederate Veterans, to select dates for the Grand Camp meeting in the fall, has decided to recommend the same dates as those of the Lynchburg Horse Show, October 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th. The first decision in regard to the matter rests with the board. If camp's action should be favorable the matter will have to go before Grand Commander George Christian, of Richmond, for his approval.

Romantic Wedding.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., March 21.—A pretty romance culminated here to-day when Mr. George Robert Wilson, Jr., and Miss Beatrice Gordon Bennett, both of Washington, D. C., were married by Rev. William A. Barr at the rectory of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, on York Street. Miss Bennett left Washington last night and was met at Old Point Comfort this morning by Mr. Wilson, who is a machinist in the navy, now stationed at the Newport News Shipyard.

AMHERST FARMERS DETERMINED TO KEEP UP OLD MEETING DAY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) AMHERST, VA., March 21.—To-day was old Amherst County Court day, and quite a crowd of people gathered in the village. A number of horse-dealers were on hand and sold a farmers' institute had been advertised for to-day. Addresses were made by Commissioner of Agriculture Kolmer and Professor Furneyhouse.

At the conclusion of the speaking, a farmers' club was organized, to meet on the third Monday in the month, alternating with Amherst Circuit Court. There will thus be in Amherst an opportunity for the people to gather every third Monday, as heretofore.

UNDER ARREST FOR PASSING FORGED CHECK

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHRISTIANSBURG, VA., March 21.—Sheriff Martin lodged a white man named H. M. Frey, of Knoxville, Tenn., in jail to-day on the charge of uttering a forged check on J. C. Weddle, a hotel keeper at Elliston, in this county, about ten days ago. Frey claimed to be agent for automobiles and sewing machines. He spent several days at Elliston and passed the check signed by W. D. Huff, drawn on a Roanoke bank, but it was returned as being no one there by that name.

Weddle began search for Frey and located him in Radford, where he was on a protracted spree, and was arrested by sergeant McNew. He waived examining, and was sent on to the grand jury, which met May 1st. He seems to be an intelligent man.

BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOOT HIS BROTHER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., March 21.—Lawrence, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Steele, accidentally shot his brother Robert, aged 8, Saturday evening. Lawrence, taking out one of the cartridges, thinking the trigger would strike the empty chamber, aimed the gun at his brother. The bullet entered the side of his neck, came out the right side, went through the window and lodged in the porch railing. The boy's condition is very critical.

The father of the boys is a conductor, and carries the pistol on his trips, and while at home Sunday, Lawrence took it out of his father's pocket.

Dr. Carmichael's Funeral.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 21.—The funeral of Dr. Spottswood Carmichael, the distinguished physician, took place from St. George's Episcopal Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. W. D. Smith, rector, assisted by Rev. Dr. J. W. Rosebro, president of Fredericksburg College, and pastor of the Presbyterian Church. The pallbearers were: Active—Dr. A. C. Doggett, Dr. W. J. Chewning; Messrs. C. H. Hurdkamp, J. Stansbury Wallace, E. J. Smith, John P. Scott, M. A. Lewis and R. H. Carmichael. Honorary—Dr. George R.

TESTIMONY WHICH CARRIES CONVICTION

It is not wholly what I say, but what the people say who have been cured by my new discovery, Paw-Paw, which should exert the most convincing power on the sick and suffering. From every quarter of the country, every State, county, city and town come letters from the people telling the glad story of cure. Dyspepsia and all other stomach troubles are being driven out. Nervousness and sleeplessness are being cured and through the purification of the blood which Paw-Paw brings about, Catarrh, Rheumatism and all other blood diseases are surely being eradicated. MUNYON.

HERE IS PROOF—READ IT.

John Hancock, Washington, D. C., Brother of the late General Winfield Scott Hancock, says: "I do not hesitate to pronounce your Paw-Paw the best cure for dyspepsia and the best stomach tonic extant. My wife and myself have both proved this to our perfect satisfaction."

Charles R. Disharoon, Mayor of Salisbury, Md., says: "I have been taking your Paw-Paw for stomach trouble and a general run-down condition and have received incalculable benefit. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers from stomach disorders."

Dr. Frank P. Murtha, a New York Physician of great prominence, says: "I cannot speak too highly of Munyon's Paw-Paw as a remedy which I successfully use and prescribe. I consider it nature's own remedy for all stomach and nerve ailments."

D. A. Catford, a leading Philadelphia Chemist, says: "Less than two bottles of your Paw-Paw cured me of a severe case of Gastritis, since which time I have analyzed the preparation and find it a combination of curatives and sedatives second to none."

Dr. Thomas C. Carter, Washington, D. C., one of the distinguished physicians in attendance on the late Senator Hanna, says: "I have used and am now using Munyon's Paw-Paw and find it a most effective Peppin tonic. I successfully prescribe it in cases of severe nervousness, indigestion and stomach trouble."

Mr. James O. Watkins, a well-known Wall Street broker, doing business at No. 25 Broad Street, N. Y., says: "I have used Munyon's Paw-Paw for indigestion, nervousness and sleeplessness with most beneficial results. My health began to improve at once, and now, after using Paw-Paw for less than a week, I am cured. I sleep better than I have for years. I gladly endorse Munyon's Paw-Paw for the benefit of other sufferers and advise all people who are afflicted with Dyspepsia, Nervousness or Sleeplessness to give this remedy a trial."

As a Spring Medicine and tonic it has no equal.

Munyon's Paw-Paw is sold by all druggists because they know that it is a marvelous remedy and that its sale not only profits them in money, but also gives them reputation and popularity. If you have Dyspepsia, try it! If you have Catarrh, try it! If you are Nervous, try it! If you have Rheumatism or any blood disease, try it! It will invigorate and strengthen you, increase your vitality, enrich your blood and make you well. Munyon's Paw-Paw Laxative Pills, 25c. a bottle—best stomach and liver pill known.

He hopes to see a strong man put up for the nomination and says that there will be no trouble about carrying Virginia for him.

Many of Mr. Ellyson's friends are anxious to see him run for the governorship at the next gubernatorial election. He is not talking about this very much as yet. His friends are, however, there is a general belief that the race will be a three-cornered one, between Messrs. Ellyson, Williams and Swanson. Mr. Ellyson has maintained throughout that he has as yet nothing to say on this subject, however.

CRUEL TO OYSTERMEN

Put Them Ashore in the Bitter Cold Without Pay.

MR. ELLYSON'S VIEWS

Thinks a Strong Minority Party in South Would Strengthen the Democrats.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., March 21.—Walker Wessels, the Eastern Shore oysterman, against whom four members of the former crew of Wessels' boat "Mary Champion," have instituted civil and criminal proceedings before the United States authorities, is in jail here awaiting trial. The men claim that Wessels kept them out on the boat Mary Champion for six weeks or more, and finally landed them on a sparsely settled shore in Northampton county, Va., at 3 A. M. in the morning, half frozen, and without pay of any kind.

The men suffered dreadfully from the cold, and as a result one of them had five of his fingers so badly frostbitten that they had to be amputated to save his life. The men sue in all for $200 wages due.

The criminal charges are flogging the complainants and sailing the boat Mary Champion without a name, and the same thing representing her to be the "Flying Skid."

CHURCH TRIAL

The trial of Edward Camp, charged before the Presbytery of Norfolk with non-attendance upon the services of the church and with wandering the pastor of Colley Memorial Presbyterian Church, was resumed this morning. Waning interest in the trial was shown by the small attendance, despite the fact that the Rev. R. A. Robinson, one of the prosecution's witnesses, occupied the stand practically all day.

Rev. B. B. McCluer offered a resolution for effecting an amicable settlement of the trial. The resolution was defeated.

Mr. Robinson was placed on the stand. He said he accepted the call to Colley Memorial Church because he felt it was his duty.

"What were the conditions that most forcibly presented themselves to you against accepting the call to Colley?" "I felt that I knew the people better than any other minister and that I could do more to get them closer together."

"Did you know of any dissension in the church before you accepted the call?" "Who did you suspect of being the chief cause of this state of ferment?" "Mr. Camp, I believe."

"What was your objection to coming here, knowing these conditions to exist?" "I thought by exercising a kind, gentle, forgiving disposition to win back those who had been misled, especially the young, and to cement the dissenting members of the church, that there was considerable opposition to extending the call to you?"

"I was, and was pained to know that Mr. Camp was among the opposition."

CAUGHT IN THE "DRAFT"

News Bits About Persons and Things of General Interest.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STUART'S DRAFT, VA., March 21.—Miss Mattie Hyde, of Warm Springs, is visiting her family, near The Draft.

Mrs. Polly Hite died near this place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Her funeral was conducted by the exercises.

Miss Mary Yonge will teach a private school for Miss M. N. Clarkson, near Thinking.

The school at this place closed Wednesday. Mr. Campbell and Miss Yonge seem to have given entire satisfaction, and to have taught very successfully. The pupils presented each teacher with one year's subscription to Munsey's Magazine.

Miss Mollie Campbell, who has been visiting her brother at Boyd's Tavern, is visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Campbell, at Camp Hill.

Mrs. A. A. Hodges, who has been very ill for some time, is somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Lane, of Thinking, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hodges to-day.

SHADOW OF DEATH IS OVER PEOPLES

Wytheville Residents Do Not Believe Governor Will Interfere With Hanging Friday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, VA., March 21.—It is now believed that all hope of commutation of sentence for Charles Peoples, or even a respite, has been abandoned by its attorneys. Governor Montagu has requested them, if they have any further papers in connection with the case, to bring them to him at once, this being taken to mean that in all the papers so far sent him, he has seen no reason for interfering. The gallows and enclosure are completed and are all ready for the execution, which is set for Friday next, March 25th. Peoples is still cool and collected, and it is believed that he will retain his nerve to the last.

Only one or two of the witnesses in the Peles murder case, who have been in Lynchburg for several days, have returned, these having been excused, the question of jurisdiction is now being tried in the United States District Court there, and it is expected that this alone will consume nearly all the week. If the case is retained in the United States Court, it will probably be continued again.

T. L. Felts, who is a Baldwin detective, shot and killed Walter Vaughan, in Wythe county, about three years ago, and soon afterwards his case was moved into the United States Court on the ground that he was looking for a Federal prisoner at the time of the altercation with Vaughan. Most people in this county still regard the killing of Vaughan as unjustifiable. Ever since the removal of the case, the Commonwealth has been trying to have it brought back into the State courts. About one hundred witnesses are in attendance, most of them from Wytheville and Wythe county.
